The Twin Cities Scottish Club

The Twin Cities Scottish Club (TCSC) was founded in 1969. A small group of native-born Scots met that year to create a nonprofit (501C3) organization to promote Scottish culture, tradition, and history. Since then, the Club has sponsored many events in the Twin Cities exposing its members, and the community to various components of Scottish culture, literature, and traditions through dance, piping, drumming, poetry, song, and ethnic food. The Twin Cities Scottish Club prides itself as being a "home away from home" for Scottish and other Celtic immigrants alike.

The TCSC actively participates in community events, such as the Minnesota Scottish Fair and Highland Games, A Scottish Ramble, Minnesota Tartan Day, A Celtic Solstice, and community and school cultural activities in Minnesota. We also financially gift other local organizations, such as Minnesota Scottish Celtic Dance Association, Macalester College Pipe Band, Minnesota Police Pipe Band, The Scottish American Center, Minnesota Scottish Fair and Highland Games, The Scottish American Center, and Hart School of Highland Dance, to name a few.

The Twin Cities Scottish Club is proud to have the longest running Robert Burns Night celebration (since 1970) in the Twin Cities. This event celebrates the 1759 birth of Scotland's own poet laureate, Robert Burns, and is attended by both TCSC members and the general public alike.

The Twin Cities Scottish Club's membership spans four generations, and our events are designed around all age groups. Current membership consists of 21 percent native-born Scots and other foreign countries, and the rest comprises of American descendants of the Celts, and others throughout the world, who enjoy Scottish culture. If you are interested in joining the TCSC, please fill out the information on the reverse side, and send to address listed. You will receive 4 newsletters per year, with Club news and information on all upcoming events. This information can also be found on our website listed above. For more information on membership or Club activities, please contact our President, Norma R. Macdonald at weeyin57@aol.com or 952-888-2800.
